The deposit confirmation required as evidence of the shareholding in connection with exercising shareholder rights as defined in Section 109 Stock Corporation Act (amendments to the agenda) must confirm that the shareholders filing the request have been shareholders for an uninterrupted period of at least three months prior to the date on which the request is filed.

In the case of several shareholders who only reach the threshold collectively, the confirmations must all refer to the same date.

Information on the right to information pursuant to Section 118 Stock Corporation Act

At the shareholders' meeting every shareholder shall, upon request, be informed about corporate matters to the extent that such information is required for the proper assessment of an item on the agenda. The duty to provide information also includes the Company's legal and business relationships to affiliated companies. If consolidated financial statements and the group management report are presented at the shareholders' meeting of a parent company (Section 244 of the Austrian Commercial Code [Unternehmensgesetzbuch/UGB]), the duty to provide information also includes the state of the group and the companies included in the consolidated financial statements.

Such information must be given in line with the principles of conscientious and accurate reporting. The information must be provided at the shareholders' meeting.

The Company may refuse to provide such information if

1. reasonable business judgement suggests that the disclosure of such information might cause a material disadvantage to the Company or an affiliate or
2. disclosure of the same may be a punishable offence.

Every shareholder attending the shareholders' meeting is entitled to receive such information. Not only the shareholder him/herself but also his/her legal or authorised representative is entitled to receive such information.

For reasons of procedural economy, any questions that require more extensive preparation for a full answer should be submitted in writing to the Management Board in good time and prior to the shareholders' meeting. Questions may be sent to the Company by email to vorstand@porr.at.

Information on the shareholders' right to file requests at the shareholders' meeting pursuant to Section 119 Stock Corporation Act

Every shareholder, irrespective of the number of shares s/he holds, is entitled to file a motion at the shareholders' meeting with respect to any item on the agenda. For that purpose proof of the right to attend the meeting, i.e. an invitation to the shareholders' meeting, is required. Not only the shareholder him/herself but also his/her legal or authorised representative attending the shareholders' meeting has the right to file motions.

If several requests have been filed regarding a specific item on the agenda, the requests published in accordance with Section 108 (1) Stock Corporation Act or Section 110 (1) Stock Corporation Act shall be voted on first. Apart from that, the chairman shall determine the order of voting.
