PORR COO Jürgen Raschendorfer resigns from his position

Vienna, 11.03.2025 - PORR AG announces that Dipl.-Ing. Jürgen Raschendorfer is resigning from his position as a member of the Management Board of PORR AG and will hand over his responsibilities in the course of March.

The reason for the resignation is a difference of views regarding the internationalisation of PORR. A decision on his successor will be made shortly. The Supervisory Board and Management Board would like to thank Jürgen Raschendorfer for his commitment and for his support of PORR over the last four years and wish him continued success.

The press release including high-resolution images is available for download from the PORR Newsroom.
